The company

Dramatodía takes its name from the Greek for representative song, and from the Intermedi sopra l'Aurora ingannata that Girolamo Giacobbi composed in 1605 — the first musical theatre written in Bologna. Founded by Alberto Allegrezza, the company puts the theatrical repertoire of the Cinque–Seicento comici back on the stage.